23. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because the cause of action upon which the complaint is based arose in the County of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which is in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

24. On or about January 8, 2001, three individuals were robbed by two perpetrators, one with a teardrop tattoo, while walking on Tioga Street in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

25. On or about January 9, 2001, without knocking or announcing themselves, while plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, was in the upstairs bedroom of her residence, she heard two loud bangs, at which time plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, immediately noticed masked men, whom she later learned were SWAT unit officers, in her bathroom doorway with guns pointed directly at her.

26. At that time, defendants, Detective Rielly, Detective Green, Police Officer Mertz, Police Officer Gursk, Police Officer Rycek, Police Officers John Doe #1-10 and/or SWAT Team Officers John Doe #1-10, pulled plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, out of her bathroom and placed her against the hallway wall, ordering her not to move.

27. While plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, was standing against the wall, she observed one of the masked defendants stamping down hard on her upstairs carpet because a fire had erupted on the carpet as a result of the concussion devices (flash bang) during the defendant officers entry into plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet's, home.

28. After approximately 10 minutes of standing in the hallway, plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, was taken downstairs and detained in the living room.

29. At that time, plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, observed her friend, plaintiffs, Renee Blair and her son Christopher Sweet, lying on the floor handcuffed. Marjorie Sweet, also observed numerous police officers inside her home.

33. Plaintiffs, Renee Blair and Christopher Sweet, remained handcuffed during the entire search by the defendants, Detective Reilly, Detective Green, Police Officer Mertz, Police Officer Gursk, Police Officer Rycek, Police Officers John Doe #1-10 and/or SWAT Team Officers John Doe #1-10.

37. When plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, returned home she contacted defendant, Detective Reilly, who confirmed that the police had entered her home earlier that day allegedly with a search warrant.

38. Plaintiff, Marjorie Sweet, requested a copy of the search warrant, however she has never received a copy of the search warrant for the January 15, 2001 police entry into her home.

39. Subsequently, the defendants, Detective Reilly, Detective Green, Police Officer Mertz, Police Officer Gursk, Police Officer Rycek, Police Officers John Doe #1-10 and/or SWAT Team Officers John Doe #1-10, have arrested an individual, with a teardrop tattoo, identified as Juan Gonzalez for the January 8, 2001 robbery.
